David Spiggle New Worker at Park

On October 7, David Spiggle of Appomattox began work as the historical park's newest permanent employee. Prior to joining the park staff he worked at Parkway Fuel Oil Company for twelve years.

David's new position will be a unique one. For most of the year he will work with the maintenance division in the upkeep of the park's resources. During the summer months, he will be a member of the "living history" program interpreting the surrender events of April 1865.

David would like to remind the community that the park has much more to see than just himself and that the buildings are open daily from 8:30 a. m. until 5:00 p. m. until next June 7.

Evergreen Methodist Shows Film

The Evergreen United Methodist Church will show a film, "The Sounds of Love", November 22 at 7: p.m.

The new color documentary features Maria Von Trapp, the real Maria from the "Sound of Music", movie actress Dale Evans, and Corrie Ten Boom who during World War II was condemned to death by the Nazis for aiding the Jews of Holland to escape capture and death.

"THE SOUNDS OF LOVE" is a film about women but it is not a woman's film. It is an absorbing documentary that has magnetic appeal to both men and women as it probes into the lives of three magnificent ladies.

Corrie Ten Boom suffered at the hands of the Nazis'. Cruel wartime death claimed the lives of four of her loved ones. Betrayed by her countrymen for aiding Jews, she, too, was scheduled for execution. Her description of what happened is a lesson in love that viewers will not soon forget.

Dale Evans' marriage to cowboy actor Roy Rogers beautifully illustrates that true love is possible in Hollywood's world of make believe. In THE SOUNDS OF LOVE, she illuminates how God involves Himself in human drama and makes Himself heard through THE SOUNDS OF LOVE".

Maria Von Trapp has a powerful story. Her adventurous and overflowing life was told in the film "The Sound of Music". In "THE SOUNDS OF LOVE", she reveals an interesting combination of the bitter and the sweet as she poignantly tells of those days in the Austrian Alps just before the invasion of Hitler's armies.

"THE SOUNDS OF LOVE" is a film about women but it is more than that. It is, in truth, a film about Christ that leaves viewers captivated, wishing that there were more.

Food Shopper

by Cathy B. Hinton
Va. Dept. of Agriculture

Remember the good old days - when the family gathered around the table and enjoyed breakfast, lunch and dinner together. Today's patterns and preferences complicate eating habits. Sis is off to music lessons, Dad has a business appointment and you may have a tennis match planned. The family on the go has the potentiality of developing erratic eating habits.

Imagine, the individual of today may have 20 contacts with food during the day rather than three balanced meals. This has a tendency to complicate food shopping even more! It's necessary to learn more about the foods we buy for consumption. Since nibbling has become an accepted part of daily routine, let's buy nibble foods that are nutritious without being a strain on the budget.

First step is to size up your snacks, how do they fit into your basic meal planning and daily nutrient requirements? Don't forget your budget! It's a good idea to plan snacks into your food shopping list so you won't be tempted by impulse items when shopping.

Do you need a munch with a punch or a save your shape snack? Understand folks can afford to eat hearty snacks. If you do strenuous work or participate in athletics you also can afford a few extra calories for an "energy" boost between meals. An excellent snack source is peanut butter. Always a good shopper's choice for a less expensive protein source.

If your clothes begin to feel a little snug it may be time to nibble on fewer calories. Look the other way when you pass those expensive snack foods on the grocery shelf. Steer your cart over to the produce section and buy some bargain priced raw vegetables and fruits. Take advantage of featured items such as celery, carrots, apples or pears. Now you can outsmart temptation. Have your refrigerator crisper filled with celery, carrot and zucchini sticks, or any fresh raw vegetable. Instead of having cheese and crackers try wrapping lettuce around the cheese. Lettuce is a low-cal substitute which is more filling.

No matter what type of nibbler you are, stop and consider if your snacks are nutritious without being a strain on the budget.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. At Thanksgiving and Christmas, my employer usually gives each employee a turkey or a fruit basket, and sometimes a gift certificate if we've had a good sales year. Do I have to pay tax on such gifts?

A. If your employer distributes to you and your co-workers goodwill gifts of food or other merchandise of nominal value on holidays, the value of these gifts is not income. However, if your employer distributes cash, gift certificates, or similar items of readily convertible cash value, such gifts represent taxable salary paid to you.

Q. I drive in a car pool to work with three other people. Are any of my auto expenses inconnection with the car pool tax deductible? Do I have to pay tax on the money I receive from the other members for gas?

A. Certain nonbusiness auto expenses are deductible at present, such as gasoline tax, personal property tax, general sales and compensating use taxes, interest on auto loans and casualty and theft losses. But the costs of repairs, gas, and similar items in connection with an automobile used in a car pool to and from work are personal expenses and they are not deductible. The money your passengers pay you to compensate your expensesis is not income to you except to the extent that it exceeds your expenses.

Q. In figuring how much I spent for our family vacation this year, I noticed that I paid Federal excise tax on our airline tickets, and several tolls for state roads we used. Are these amounts tax deductible?

A. No, these are nondeductible taxes. General sales taxes on souvenirs you bought, or on rental property such as a pleasure boat (if rentals are subject to the sales tax law of the locality) are tax deductible expenses you might have paid on your vacation. For more information on de d u c t i b l e taxes, consult IRS publication 546, "Income Tax Deduction for Taxes." You can get a copy free at may IRS offices.

Q. I just bought a new house in a development and I'm renting it out. The city has assessed me for building a sidewalk in front of my house. Does th a assessment qualify as a deductible rental expense?

A. No. Assessments for local benefits that tend to increase the value of your property, such as assessments for the construction of streets, sidewalks, water and sewerage systems or improvement of public parking facilities, are generally not deductible. If the local benefit involved increases the value of your property, you must increase the basis of your property by the amount of the assessment.

"Miss FHA"

Miss Kathy O'Brien

Appomattox County High's "Miss FHA", Kathy O'Brien, placed second in the Campbell-Appomattox Federation Competition on November 4, 1974. Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. O'Brien of Appomattox.

The event took place at the annual skating party at "Skateland" in Lynchburg. In addition to the "Miss FHA" judging, there were a number of audience participation contests which many of our students entered. A good time was enjoyed by all and the Federation money-making project was a great success.
